President's Message Annual General Meeting

Following up from the email issued four weeks ago and previous advice as per the yearly agenda noted in each of the newsletters the following is confirmed.

APJA AGM Sunday 11th July 1.30pm. Online via Zoom

1.30pm Welcome by President Paul Robinson.

1.35pm Reports.

1.50pm Election of 2021-2022 committee.

2.00 pm Guest speaker Adrian Lowe

Post-production: Photographer could not clone away dust spots on the image no matter what was done. Child walks in, 'Dirty monitor screen'

All members are encouraged to attend the Zoom meeting for the reports and BYO afternoon tea in your homes ☺ It is with regret that the meeting could not be held in the association's venue for a face-to-face meeting but I know you all appreciate this.

So as to emphasise the AGM the usual topics offered in the newsletter are being heldover until next month.

AGM Guest Speaker – Adrian Lowe

A short bio for Adrian reads:

Involved in photography professionally for over 50 years full time/in-between/during real jobs; Psychotherapist and Philosophy tutor for about 30 years, which gave me an insight as to why we psychologically and automatically react in certain ways to certain elements/effects in images. Author, projects/exhibitions on social doco/human condition/topics, presenter, retired PSQ judge. (And golfer - of which judging is even harder)

Adrian's presentation is titled:

Using psychology to critique successfully

Looking forward to seeing you all at the AGM ready for an entertaining and valuable presentation that will further our understanding of judging.
